COUNT ONE

The Grand Jury charges:

1. From at least in or about October 2005, up to and including in or about February 2006, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," PIERRE RICHARD RENE, a/k/a "Trump," and NADINE WHITTINGHAM, the defendants, and others known and unknown, unlawfully, willfully, and knowingly, did combine, conspire, confederate, and agree together and with each other to commit an offense against the United States, to wit, to violate Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344.

2. It was a part and object of the conspiracy that ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," PIERRE RICHARD RENE, a/k/a "Trump," and NADINE WHITTINGHAM, the defendants, and others known and unknown, unlawfully, willfully, and knowingly, would and did execute and attempt to execute a scheme and artifice to defraud a financial institution, the deposits of which were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and to obtain, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises, moneys, funds, credits, assets, securities, and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, such financial institution, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344.

Overt Acts

3. In furtherance of the conspiracy, and to effect the illegal object thereof, the following overt acts, among others, were committed in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere:

a. In her capacity as a bank employee, NADINE WHITTINGHAM, the defendant, electronically accessed the accounts of an account holder ("Victim-1") at a bank (the "Bank") several times between November 4 and November 21, 2005.

b. In her capacity as a bank employee, NADINE WHITTINGHAM, the defendant, electronically accessed the accounts of an account holder ("Victim-4") at the Bank several times between November 4 and November 17, 2005.

c. On or about November 10, 2005, an unidentified co-conspirator called the Bank and changed the address on the checking and money market accounts of "Victim-1" from an address in the Bronx, New York, to 350 Park Avenue, New

d. In the same phone call, referenced in subparagraph (c) above, the unidentified co-conspirator ordered checks on Victim-1's account, and caused the checks to be mailed to the 350 Park Avenue address.

e. Between on or about November 14, 2005 and on or about November 18, 2005, ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant, provided a woman ("Witness-1") with approximately ten fraudulent checks drawn on one of the bank account of Victim-1.

f. ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant, directed Witness-1 to cash the fraudulent checks drawn on Victim-1's account at various locations.

g. ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant, collected from Witness-1 the approximately $80,000 fraudulently obtained from Victim-1's account.

h. On or about November 30, 2005, an unidentified co-conspirator called the Bank and changed the address on the accounts of a Bank customer ("Victim-2") from an address in Manhattan to 696 East 58th Street, Brooklyn, New York.

i. In the same phone call, referenced in subparagraph (h) above, the unidentified co-conspirator ordered checks on Victim-2's account, and caused the checks to be mailed to the Brooklyn address.

j. In or about the Fall of 2005, ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant, drove a woman ("Witness-2") to a branch of the Bank in Brooklyn so that she could open an account in order to cash some checks for him, but Witness-2 was told that she could not open an account.

k. ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn, the defendant, thereafter took Witness-2 to a branch of the Bank in Rosedale, Queens, where NADINE WHITTINGHAM, the defendant, authorized and opened the account.

l. Between on or about December 7, 2005 and on or about December 15, 2005, ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant, provided Witness-2 with approximately eleven fraudulent checks drawn on Victim-2's bank account.

m. ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant, directed Witness-2 to cash the checks at various locations.

n. ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant, collected from Witness-2 the approximately $71,800 fraudulently obtained from Victim-2's account.

o. On or about November 21, 2005, an unidentified co-conspirator called the Bank and changed the address on the accounts of "Victim-4" from an address in New Jersey to 5101 Avenue J, Brooklyn, New York.

p. During the same call, referenced in sub-paragraph (p) above, the unidentified co-conspirator ordered checks on Victim-4's account, and caused the checks to be mailed to the Avenue J address.

q. In or about the Fall of 2005, PIERRE RICHARD RENE, a/k/a "Trump," the defendant, met a woman ("Witness-6"), and told her that he had a friend who could help her with starting her own business.

r. PIERRE RICHARD RENE, a/k/a "Trump," the defendant, introduced Witness-6 to ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant.

s. Thereafter, ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant, gave Witness-6 a fraudulent check for approximately $59,000.

t. ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant, directed Witness-6 to deposit the check into her personal account, and then directed her to wire $50,000 of the money to another account. The check was drawn on the Bank account of Victim-4.

(Title 18, United States Code, Section 1349.)

COUNT TWO

The Grand Jury further charges:

4. From in or about October 2005 up to and including in or about February 2006, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, ESMOND ELCOCK, JR., a/k/a "Shawn," the defendant, unlawfully, willfully, and knowingly executed and attempted to execute a scheme and artifice to defraud a financial institution, the deposits of which were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and to obtain, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises, the moneys, funds, credits, assets, securities and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, such financial institution, to wit, ELCOCK provided to individuals not named herein several fraudulent checks drawn on accounts at a bank, having a total aggregate value of at least $1 million, for the purpose of having those individuals either cash the checks and return the proceeds to him, or deposit the checks and redirect the funds pursuant to his instructions.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1344 and 2.)

COUNT THREE

The Grand Jury further charges:

5. From in or about October 2005 up to and including in or about February 2006, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, NADINE WHITTINGHAM, the defendant, unlawfully, willfully, and knowingly executed and attempted to execute a scheme and artifice to defraud a financial institution, the deposits of which were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and to obtain, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises, the moneys, funds,

(3) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court;

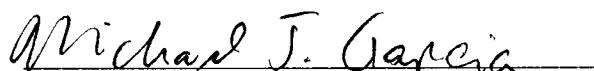

(4) has been substantially diminished in value; or

(5) has been commingled with other property which cannot be subdivided without difficulty; it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 982(b), to seek forfeiture of any other property of said defendant up to the value of the above forfeitable property.
